

Atlantic Links to Learning
Delta Fredericton
Fredericton, New Brunswick
September 24-26, 2019

The Atlantic Links to Learning Symposium is designed for First Nation Land Managers and Economic Development practitioners. Each Atlantic First Nation may register 2 (two) delegates; one Lands Manager and one Economic Development Officer. Councilors responsible for this portfolio from each Atlantic First Nation may also register as one of the 2 delegates. There is no registration fee, and Cando will cover travel & accommodation costs for each delegate. Travel will be approved upon review and approval. Please see enclosed package for details.

Personal Information

First & Last Name	First Nation / Organization
Position	Address
City, Province, Postal Code	Email
Phone	Fax

Please check one: ☐ Delegate ☐ Paid Delegate (Extra delegate/other) ☐ Exhibitor ☐ Presenter ☐ Partner

Please check off the workshops that you would like to attend:

Tuesday, September 24, 8:30 am-3:30 pm

- ☐ NVIT Course: ACED 161-Negotiations and Contract Management
- ☐ ARALA: Combination of MRP FHRIRA and Estates Training along with NALMA Estate Toolkit Specialized Training

* Cando covers the cost of the 3-credit course with NVIT. The course requires 45 hours: 8 hours face to face and the remainder hours will be online. There will be assignments online to obtain the credit.

Please check off if you would like to attend the Networking event, so we can account for you:

Tuesday, September 24, 6:30 pm-9:00 pm

- ☐ Inclusion Festival: A wonderful evening of networking, games and entertainment mixed with superb culinary delights.

Cancellation Policy

If you are unable to attend this event, or require someone to attend on your behalf, please provide us with any cancellations or registration transfers by September 17, 2019.

There is a fee of $367.50 for any extra delegates beyond the two mentioned above. For payment options, please contact Jessica Sanderson-Barry at JSanderson@edo.ca.

